

GIT GAT GÎTE

Watsonville near the Elkhorn Slough

A small retreat space and outdoor painting studio with overnight accommodations for two. This unconventional floorplan has the kitchen and outside bathroom on the lower level and the upper sitting room has a queen size murphy bed. Thoughtfully designed, the Gîte is available for an Artist Stay, a Brief Retreat, or Creative Day Use.

Your Hosts:

Judy Gittelsohn, www.judyg.com
Greg Gatwood, www.moderngardensca.com

The Gîte * is located in a rural setting and provides an economical and austere respite from regular life. One can retreat and be secluded, or be involved in creative pursuits and local activities. In the fertile Pajaro Valley, nearby farms or Greg's garden boxes offer great produce. The kitchen is a practical cooking space that opens on to an expansive patio. Take an art class with Judy. Kayak in the Elkhorn Slough. Visit our beaches and extraordinary nature.

* pronounced – ZHêt - rhymes with sheet
a small furnished vacation house, typically in a rural district, fully furnished and equipped for self-catering.

Stay

We welcome you to our secluded, refined rustic retreat to explore, pause, think, further your art and yourself, uninterrupted.

Retreat

- a long weekend 3 nights
- a four day week stay

Artist Stay

- 36 day a long month

Creative Day Use

Stays includes cleaning and sanitizing. Refundable deposits may be required.

Book with Judy • prices upon request me@judyg.com • (650) 248 - 5381

GIT GAT GÎTE

